

Summer Reading started June 5, but it's still not too late to sign up.

Read what you want, when you want. As long as you read 25 days between now and July 15, you are a Summer Reader!

Sign up now — either online via the free Beanstack app or in person at any PPL location.

- Sign up at your favorite Peoria Public Library location, the one you visit most often, OR sign up online at <https://peoriapubliclibrary.beanstack.org/> or the Beanstack app.
- Track your reading on paper logs we give you OR online via Beanstack.
- Read 25 days this summer to earn an invite to our exclusive after-hours party at Peoria Zoo!

For each challenge you complete, you will get an entry into our Special Prize

Drawing!

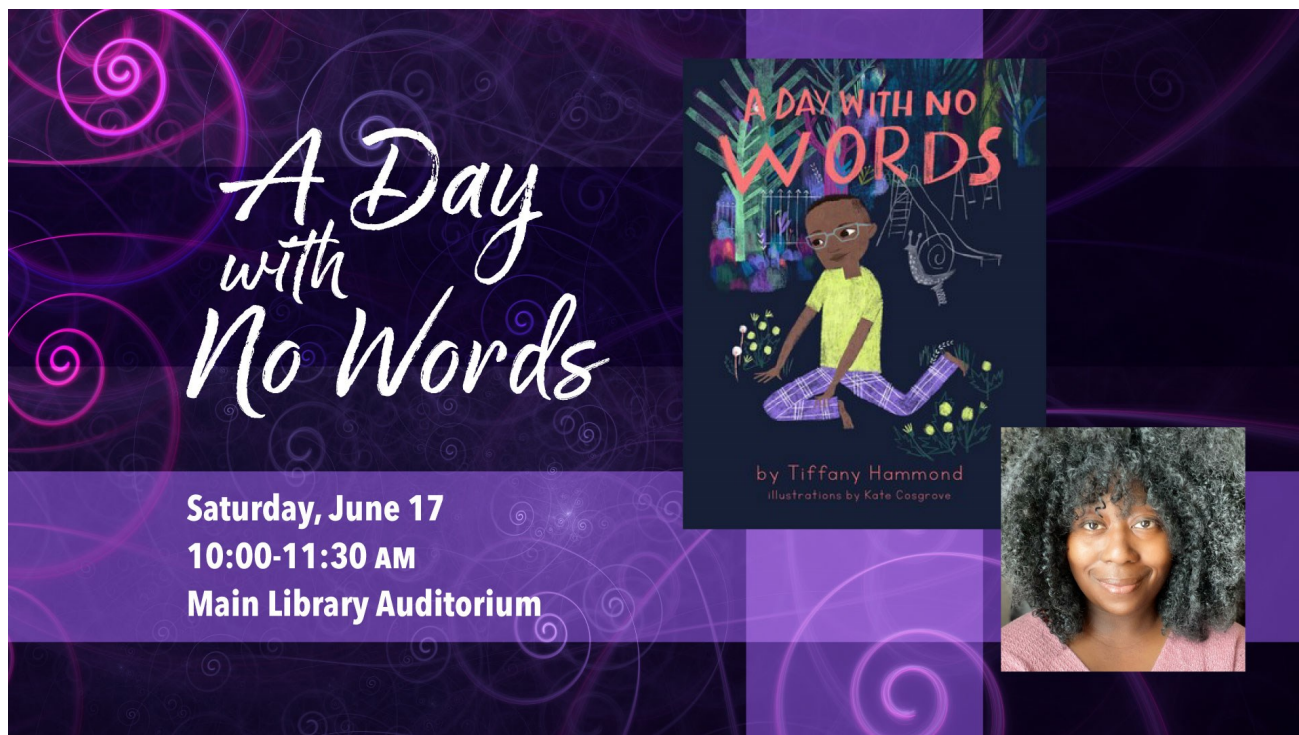

More challenges = more entries!

- Read with a Friend
- Read a Magazine or Newspaper
- Read a Banned or Challenged Book
- Read Outside
- Read a book that's been made into a movie & watch the movie

SAVE THE DATE!

Join us for a discussion with author Tiffany Hammond as she shares her experience as an Autistic mother, advocate, and storyteller who uses her personal experiences with Autism and parenting two Autistic boys to guide others on their journey.

A Day With No Words invites readers into the life of an Autism Family who communicates just as the child does, without spoken language.

Monday, June 17

10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. at Main Library, 107 NE Monroe

Free and open to the public.

Peoria Public Library is committed to inclusion and accessibility. To request accommodations, please email programming@ppl.peoria.lib.il.us

New Gallery Exhibit at Main Library

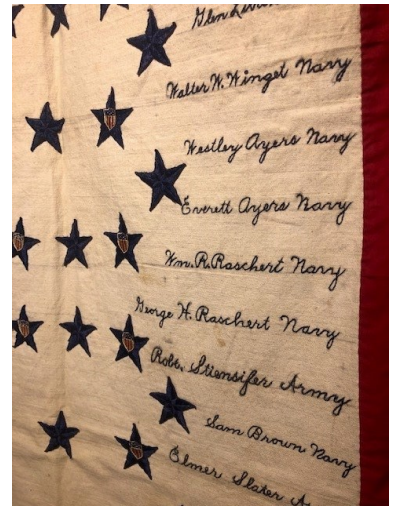

Historic Flags Unveil Peoria's Patriotism features select flags from Peoria Historical Society's distinctive collection.

The display includes a wide range of flags, including a flag from the Civil War era, an 1899 flag flown at the home of prominent Peorian Captain Henry Detweiller, and several service flags and memorial flags marking the sacrifices made by soldiers who served in the Spanish-American War, WWI and WWII.

This exhibition, which will be on display throughout June and July, celebrates Peoria's patriotism.

Free and open to the public.
